

Overview:

The Cavan Centre is a Residential Centre for Education and Community Development and is a registered charity. The Centre is a North Inner City of Dublin project and is located in Ballyjamesduff, Co. Cavan.

Through the Empowering Communities Programme, the Centre provides invaluable educational, recreational and training experiences for young people who would otherwise not have such opportunities.

The Centre offers young people an opportunity to experience an adventure residential stay in a country setting and encourages participation in adventure sports and activities such as High Ropes, Kayaking, Rockwall, Hill-walking, Archery etc., through an experiential learning process.
