

Overview:

The ISPCC's Childline Therapeutic Support Service works to increase the ability of children to self-regulate their behaviour and cope with the difficulties that affect their lives. Services work towards reinforcing informal social networks and increasing levels of social support.

Sessions are provided by professional staff working within ISPCC centres and throughout the community, within homes, and community venues.

ISPCC Childline Therapeutic Support Service

Unit 4
YWCA Building,
North Road,
Monaghan
H18 KF98

www.ispcc.ie

Bridgin McMahon
01 522 4207
087 992 7917

bridgin.mcmahon@ispcc.ie

<https://www.facebook.com/ISPCCChildline>

<https://twitter.com/ISPCCChildline>

<https://www.youtube.com/user/ISPCCIreland>
