

Overview:

The Galway City Youth Cafe is provided by Foróige. Our purpose is to develop and implement youth work interventions that place the young person at the centre and is implemented in their community.

Foróige's overarching aim is to enable young people to involve themselves consciously and actively in their own development and in the development of society.

The Project is aimed at young people aged 10-24, with a particular focus on young people from *diverse ethnic backgrounds

*at risk of social isolation *needing support with mild mental health difficulties *at risk of early school leaving and young people experiencing economic and social disadvantage *needing support with personal, social or career development
