

Overview:

Kildare Youth Services supports young people, children and families in Co. Kildare & West Wicklow to enable them to live a full and active life within their communities and society.

Kildare Youth Services delivers a range of community-based projects that work with young people, children & families across County Kildare and West Wicklow, and supports volunteer-led Youth Clubs through an integrated youth service model.

Kildare Youth Services is a member of Youth Work Ireland, which is the largest youth organisation in Ireland, made up of 21 Local Youth Services across the country.

The West Wicklow Youth Project works with young people in Blessington, Dunlavin, Baltinglass and the surrounding communities.
