

Overview:

The aim of the Cork City Centre Youth Service is to provide a youth led, safe and inviting space for young people to be themselves.

GroundFloor is a drop in youth space open on Wednesdays 2-7pm, Fridays and Saturdays 2-9pm. GroundFloor includes a fully equipped music studio and live performance and rehearsal space.

Live events with awareness raising themes, live gigs, digital media projects, movie nights, quiz nights, cooking sessions and study spaces are also provided. Leadership opportunities are available to participants through the Leaders in Training programme.

Interactive health activities in physical and mental health, relationships and sexual health are provided in house and to outreach groups. One to one support and access to the wrap around services of Cork YMCA are available.
