

Overview:

Bray Travellers Community Development Group is located on the main street of Bray and covers supports to Travellers across Bray, Kilmacanogue and surrounding areas (some families accommodated outside town) due to housing policy the Traveller community are spread across the area with a range of issues arising such as accommodation, drug use, early school leaving, unemployment, racism and discrimination etc.

However as only a minute budget is allocated, the Project can only facilitate the provision of a summer project for young Travellers, some of whom have high level of need.
