Working with Young People

UBU Your Place Your Space provides quality, flexible and responsive youth services in local communities.

Our vision is to respect young people's rights, listen to their voices, and support them as they transition from childhood to adulthood.

VISION

All young people are enabled to realise their maximum potential, by respecting their rights and hearing their voices, while protecting and supporting them as they transition from childhood to adulthood.

GOALS

(1) "to provide young person-centred, community-based and out-of-school youth services to young people in need of support".

(2) "to ensure that each layer of the governance structure adds value to the direct work with young people". In the context of the UBU funding scheme, these layers include DCYA, Education and Training Boards (ETBs) and funded organisations.

MISSION

To provide out-of-school supports to young people in their local communities to enable them to overcome adverse circumstances and achieve their full potential by improving their personal and social development outcomes.

7 VALUES

Young people are free to participate in a wide range of quality non-formal educational activities.

Provision is rights-based, and young person-centred.

Empowering young people to reach their full potential.

Community-based activities.

Relationship building, listening, trust, acceptance, patience, and respect with a focus on early intervention and prevention.

Clarity of purpose.

Projects are maximised by promoting efficient, effective and transparent governance, management, and administrative arrangements.

TARGET GROUP

Young people aged between 10 and 24 years old who are experiencing marginalisation or are disadvantaged or vulnerable are the primary target group for youth services funded by the UBU scheme.

POLICY, FUNDING & SERVICE DELIVERY CYCLE

The first policy and service delivery cycle for the UBU scheme is based on a 3.5-year process of youth service planning, implementation and review. Subsequent policy cycles will be a three-year term.

PERSONAL & SOCIAL OUTCOMES

Communication Skills.
Confidence & Agency.
Planning & Problem Solving.
Relationships.
Creativity & Imagination.
Resilience & Determination.
Emotional Intelligence.

FUNDING STRANDS

Strand A provides funding for the direct provision of youth services.

Strand B provides funding to support the access of young people to existing youth facilities.

Strand C provides funding for capacity building.

How it will work

UBU will open to online applications in January 2020 and is due for operational launch in July 2020.

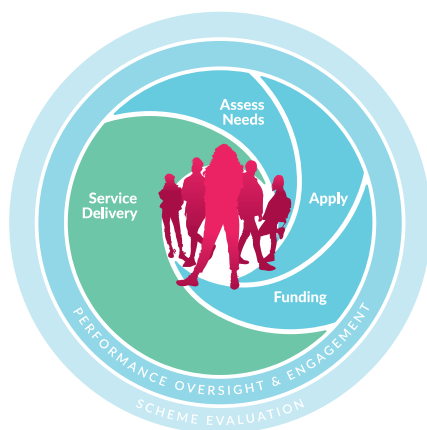

UBU will operate on a 3 year cycle (3.5 year for the first cycle).

As the operational launch of the Scheme will take place in July 2020, the transition period will remain in effect until the 30th of June 2020.

The Department of Children and Youth Affairs is the lead agency and grantor for UBU Your Place Your Space.

The Educational and Training Boards will administer the funding to organisations based on a cycle of needs assessment, planning, implementation and review. UBU Your Place Your Space is awarded to organisations through annual grant funding.

The stages entailed in the policy, funding and service delivery cycle for the UBU Your Place Your Space are illustrated adjacent.
